

Revive Strength & Nutrition No Refund Policy

We're so excited to support you in reaching your goals—and we want to be transparent every step of the way.

Because our programs are custom-built and delivered digitally with immediate access to coaching materials, all sales are final and non-refundable once purchased.

What to know:

- No refunds will be issued for any of our plans (Empower, Ignite, or Elevate), whether paid monthly or in full.
- If you're on a monthly plan, you can cancel anytime to avoid future charges—but you'll keep access through the end of your current billing cycle.
- If you've prepaid for a multi-month package, that payment is also non-refundable and cannot be transferred or paused.

We know life happens—if you're navigating something unexpected, reach out. While we can't offer refunds, we're always here to support and troubleshoot when needed.

By enrolling in any Revive Strength & Nutrition program, you agree to this policy.
